

Who am I?

TWO QUESTIONS for you to consider...

#1 How do you
determine your VALUE
as a person?

Do you find it in your accomplishments?

The grades you get?

Your boss's approval?

Your athletic achievements?

The admiration of your friends?

Success in your career?

The things you own?

Is this working for you?

Or do you find it in how you FEEL— the times you're happy?

Whether you have good friends or someone special in your life,
or when things are going
well in your family?

Does your value or worth really ebb and

Is it determined by someone else's opinion of you, how they treat you?

Are they trustworthy of this power to determine your identity?

#2 Says WHO?

This question can be tricky. Surely when it comes to our self-value the answer to the question of “Says who?” must be “Me! I determine my value.”

The problem is, when it comes to our value and worth, what our spirit longs for is something stable, strong, and right.

But we know ourselves.

We know we are not stable or strong, and life has taught us we are rarely right. And nor is anyone else.

Our spirits
question of “Who determines my value?” is either
“I do!” or “You do!”

And
deep down
we all know this.

In the following pages...

You'll find six statements that define who you are in God's eyes, and several verses from the Bible about each one.

Through these verses, you'll discover what God says about who you are, what He thinks of you, does for you—and how he cares for you.

And you'll discover just how good it is when you have your identity rooted in Him.

Your workmanship

well I know it.

¹⁵ You watched me as I was being formed in utter seclusion, as I was

So, Christ has truly set us free...

A New Identity

Through a story told very early in the Bible, we learn that God created everything in this world to be good. Human beings were created especially good.

Not only that, we learned that we are designed to inhabit the most exalted status among all things created...even higher than the angels. What a destiny from a loving God!

Then God said, "Let us make human beings in our image, to be like us...So God created human beings in his own image. In the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.

GENESIS 1:26-27

We learn also of one being who is envious of our destiny.

Represented as a serpent in this story, this fallen angel's main objective is to separate us from God, and his main tactic is confusion.

He offers options, ideas, and opinions all designed to distract us from the only thing that is stable, strong, and right—God Himself.

That is why the questions “How do we know?” and “Says who?” are so important.

In this magazine, you've read the very words of God. Nothing is more hopeful than that.

You've seen for yourself that God made you on purpose—and He made you with a specific purpose. Through the work of his Son Jesus, we learn that we're each offered the opportunity to become a son or daughter of God, a brother or sister of the Christ. What an amazing thought!

So am I a son or daughter of God now?
You can be. Today.
Right now.

The thing that gets in the way of accomplishing that purpose is our separation from God. The Bible calls that separation sin. But as you've just read, Jesus has defeated the power of sin and has made reconciliation between you and God now possible.

Do you wish to become right with God and receive His forgiveness? Do you wish to become a child of God and live the rest of this life fulfilling your God-given purpose? Do you wish to dedicate your life to someone that is stable, strong, and right?

You can. Nothing would make God happier.

Pray to God to begin your new identity as a child of God, using words like these:

“God, I know that I am a sinner and I believe that your Son, Jesus Christ, died for my sins on the cross and was raised from the dead for my sake. I now turn from my sins forever, and acknowledge that Jesus is my Lord and Saviour.”
